CALLING ALL CURIOUS KIDS!

Small scouts.
Wild colors.

A Yellowstone wildlife coloring adventure

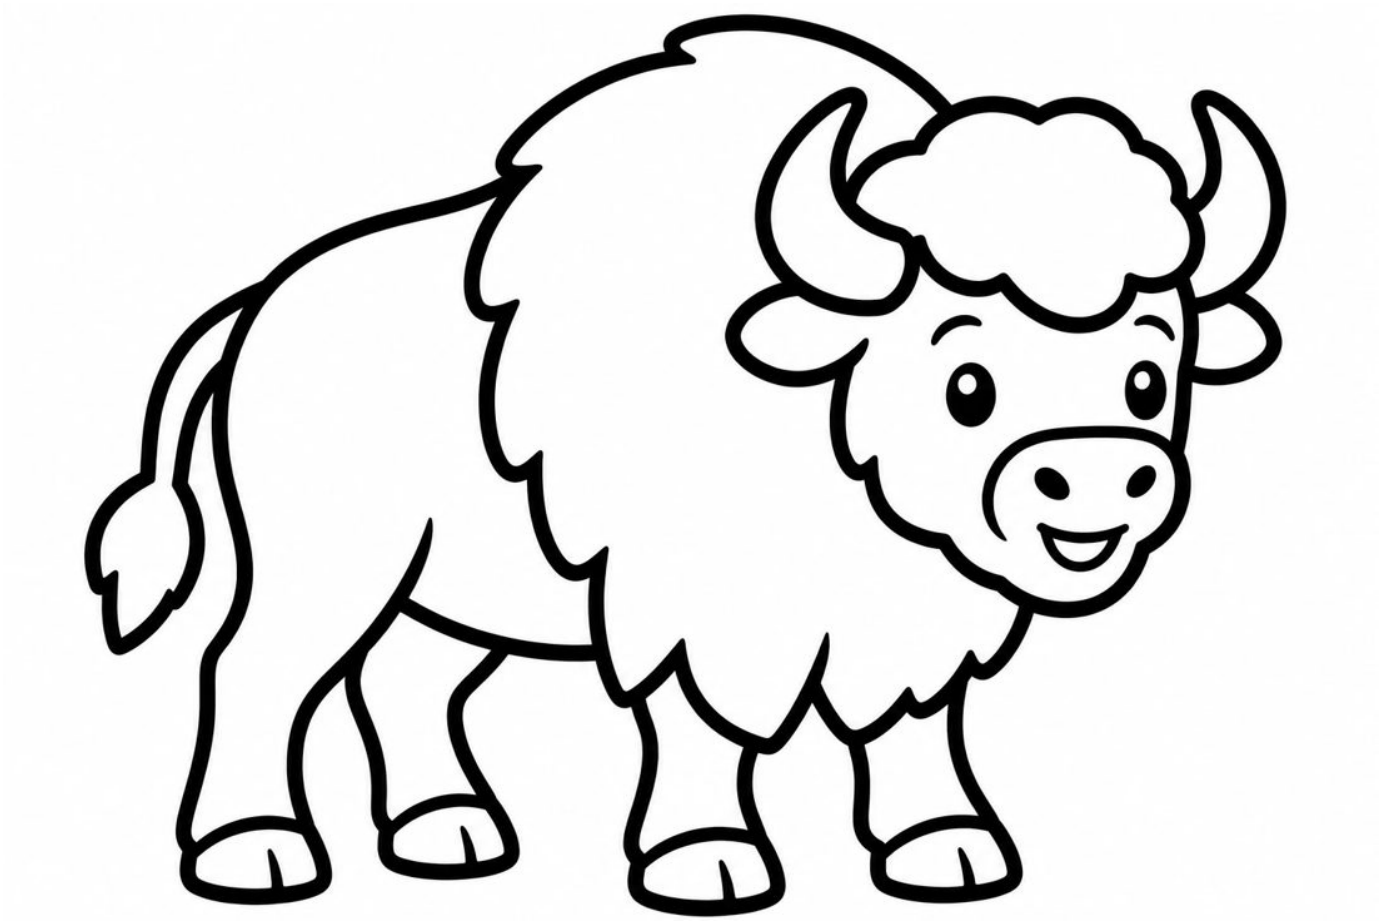

THIS ADVENTURE BELONGS TO

Big shapes. Little hands. Wild colors.

AGES 3–6 / PRINT • COLOR • EXPLORE

FIELD NOTES / 01 / MAMMAL

Bison

READ TOGETHER

Bison eat grass.

COLOR AND NOTICE

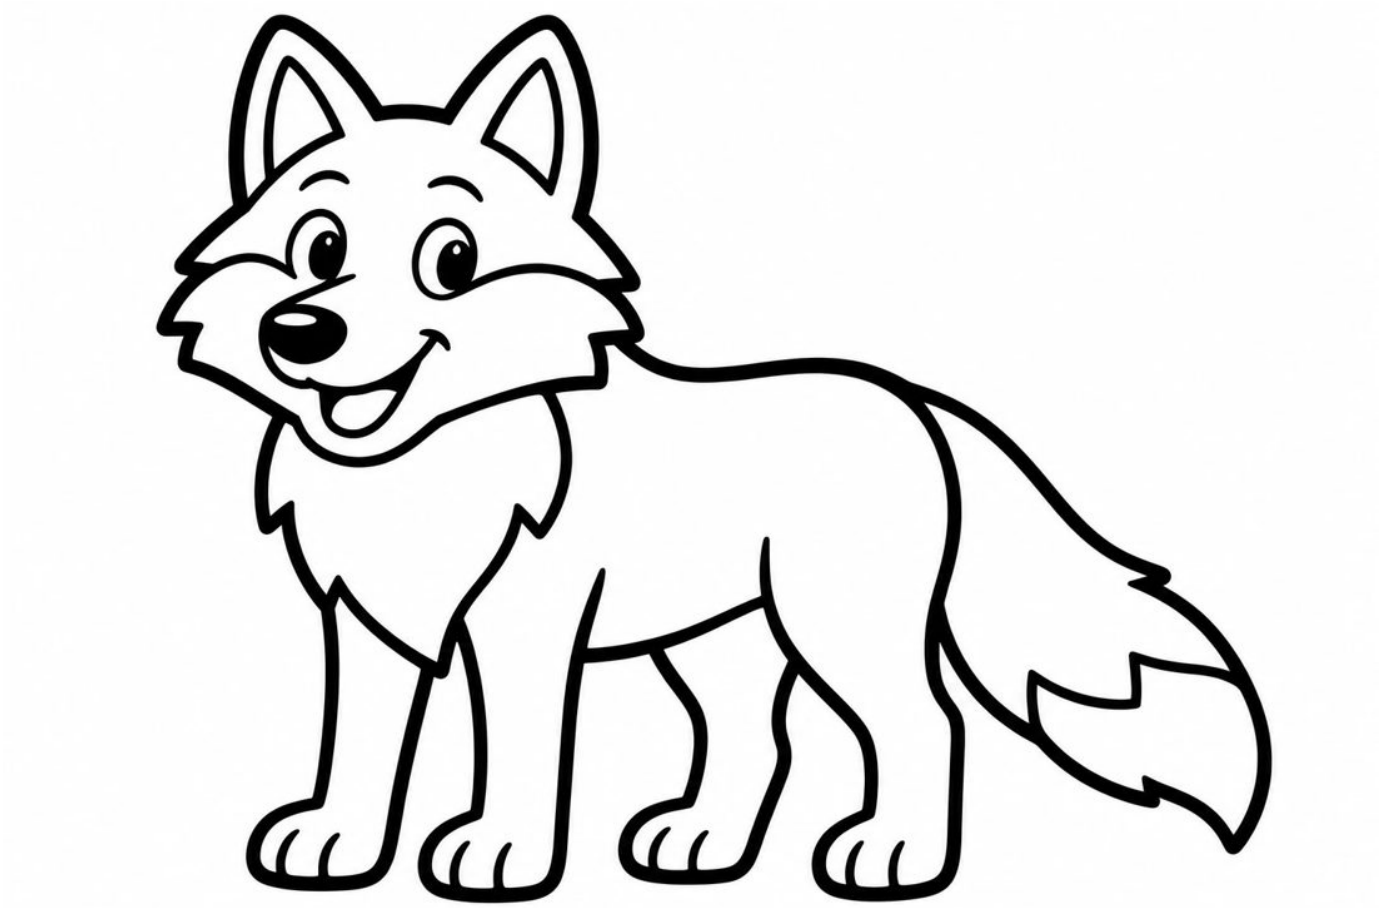

Point to the horns. Pick a color for your bison.

Grown-ups: scan ↗

GOOD SCOUTS GIVE WILDLIFE SPACE.
Stay at least 100 yards from bears, wolves and cougars; 25 yards from other wildlife.
Never approach or feed wildlife. Watch with a grown-up and follow ranger guidance.

FIELD NOTES / 02 / MAMMAL

Gray wolf

READ TOGETHER

Wolves live in families called packs.

COLOR AND NOTICE

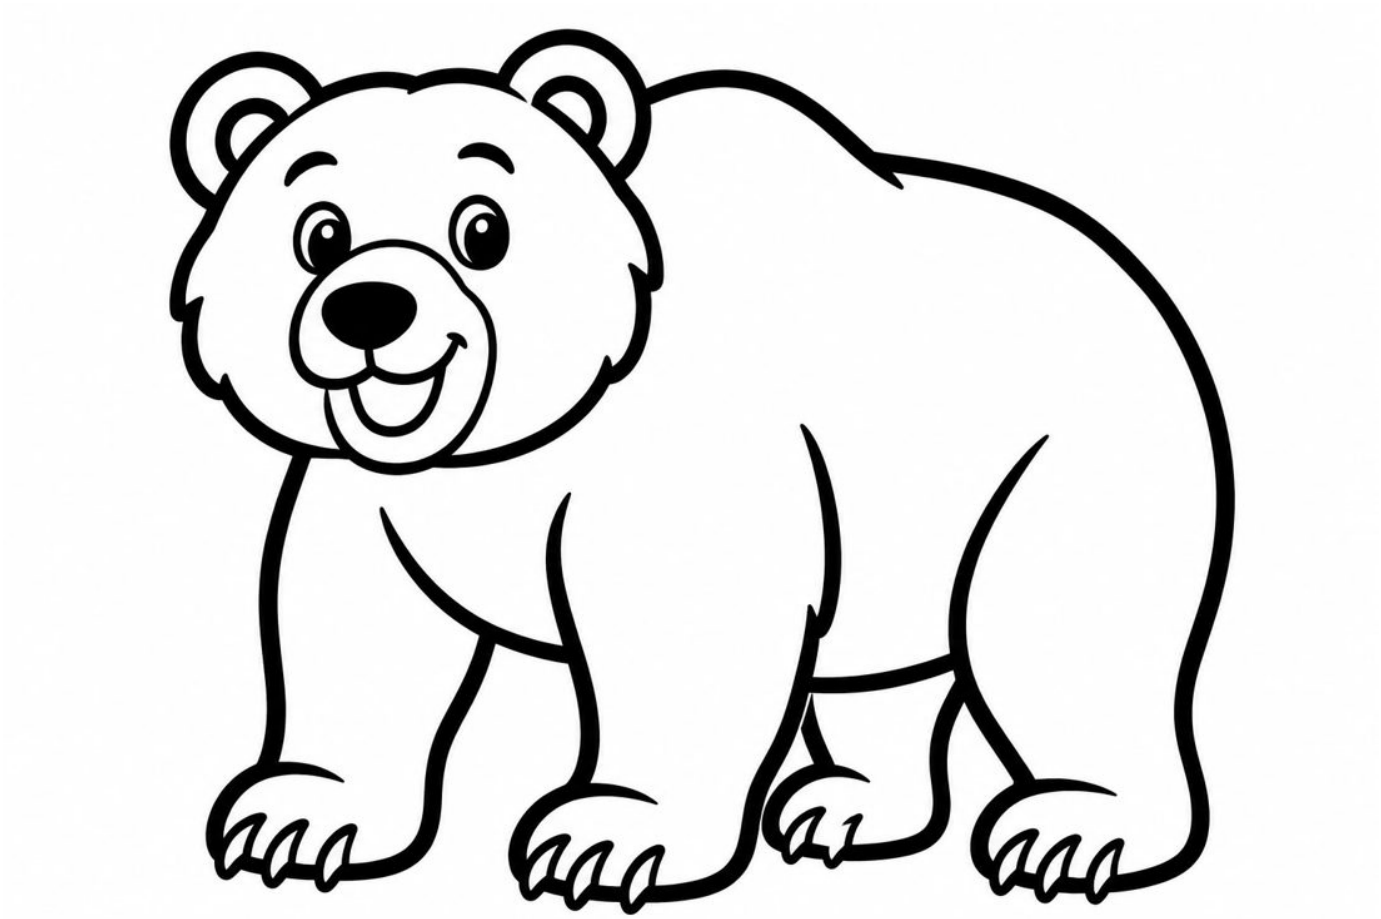

Find the tail. Color it your favorite color.

Grown-ups: scan ↗

GOOD SCOUTS GIVE WILDLIFE SPACE.
Stay at least 100 yards from bears, wolves and cougars; 25 yards from other wildlife.
Never approach or feed wildlife. Watch with a grown-up and follow ranger guidance.

FIELD NOTES / 03 / MAMMAL

Grizzly bear

READ TOGETHER

Grizzly bears have a big shoulder hump.

COLOR AND NOTICE

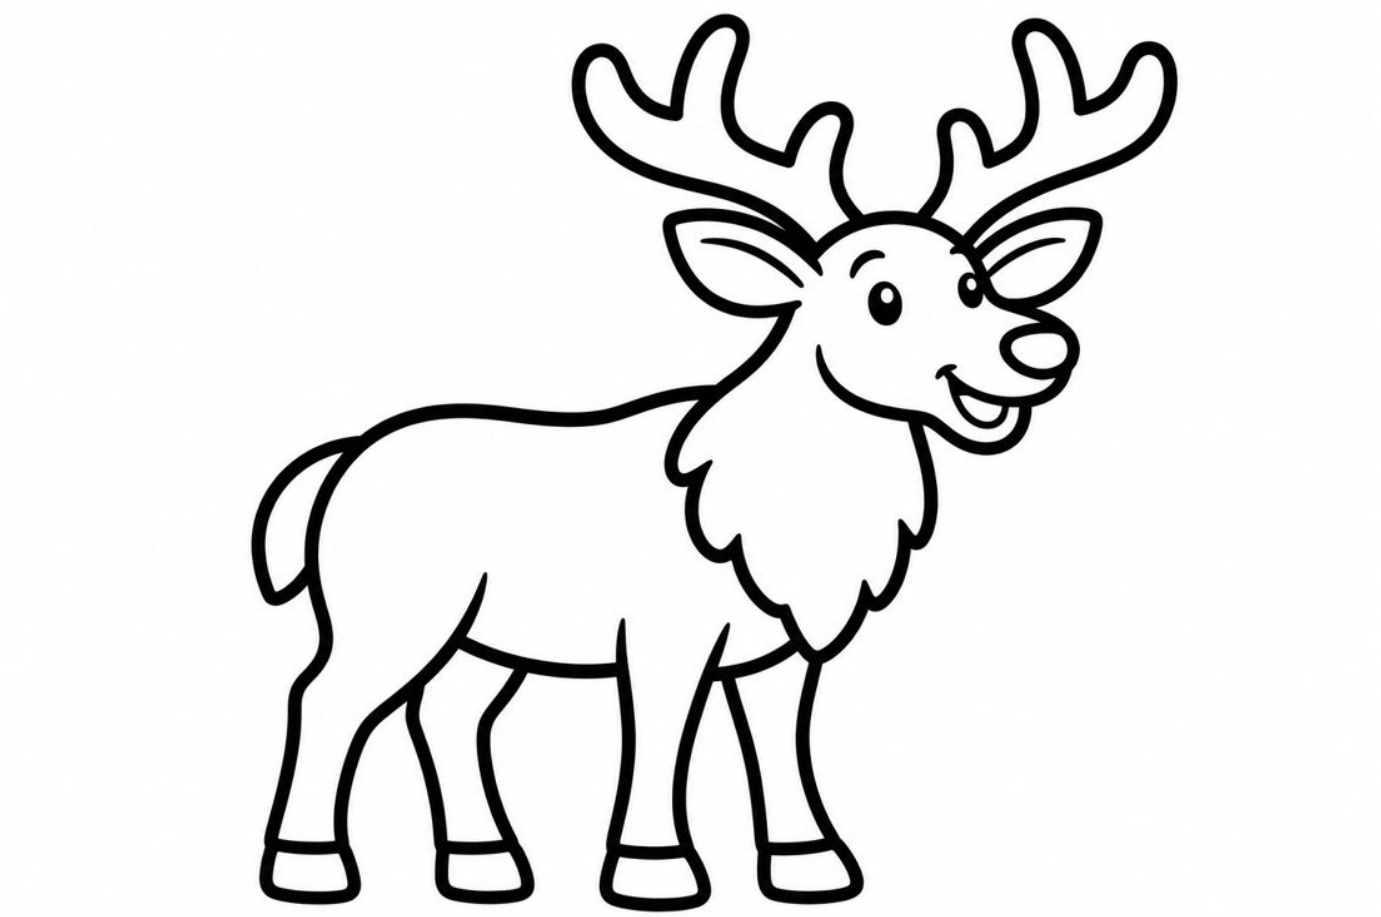

Point to the round ears. Color the bear.

Grown-ups: scan ↗

GOOD SCOUTS GIVE WILDLIFE SPACE.
Stay at least 100 yards from bears, wolves and cougars; 25 yards from other wildlife.
Never approach or feed wildlife. Watch with a grown-up and follow ranger guidance.

FIELD NOTES / 04 / MAMMAL

Elk

READ TOGETHER

Male elk grow new antlers each year.

COLOR AND NOTICE

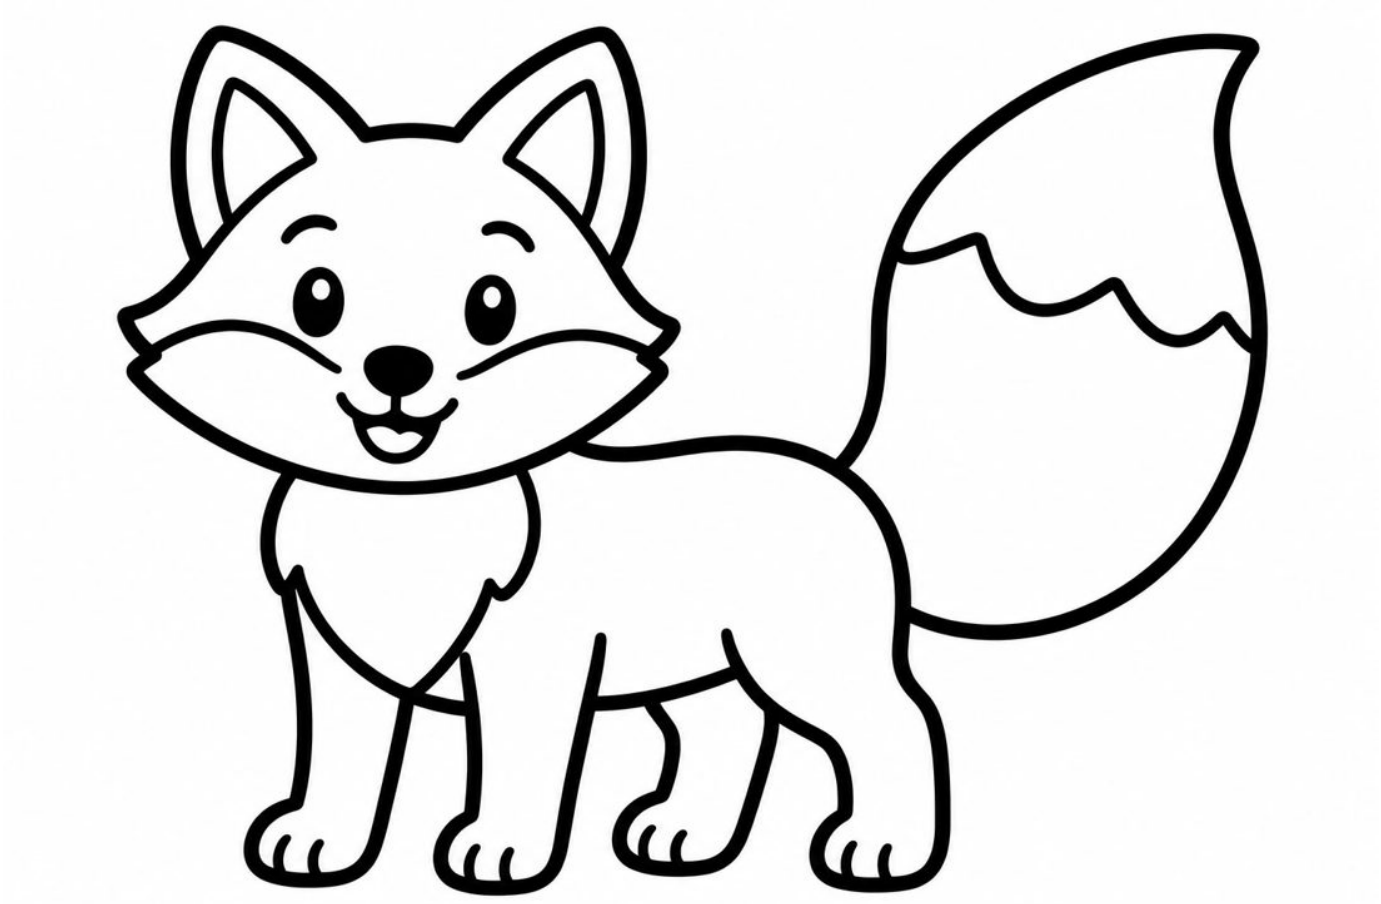

Count the legs together. Pick a color for the elk.

Grown-ups: scan ↗

GOOD SCOUTS GIVE WILDLIFE SPACE.
Stay at least 100 yards from bears, wolves and cougars; 25 yards from other wildlife.
Never approach or feed wildlife. Watch with a grown-up and follow ranger guidance.

FIELD NOTES / 05 / MAMMAL

Red fox

READ TOGETHER

Red foxes have big, bushy tails.

COLOR AND NOTICE

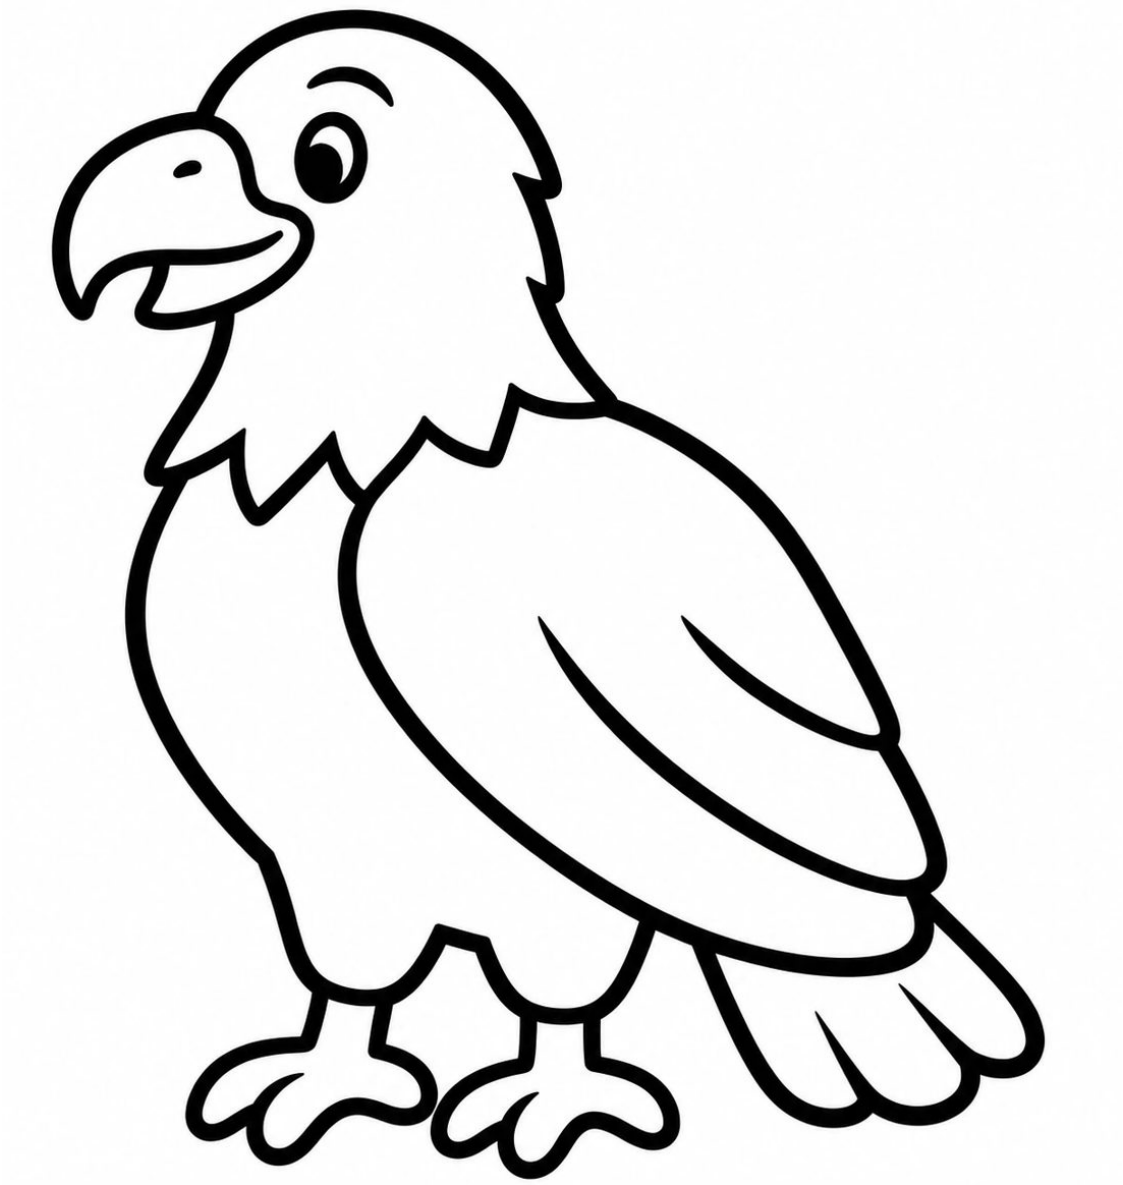

Find the tail tip. Give it a special color.

Grown-ups: scan ↗

GOOD SCOUTS GIVE WILDLIFE SPACE.
Stay at least 100 yards from bears, wolves and cougars; 25 yards from other wildlife.
Never approach or feed wildlife. Watch with a grown-up and follow ranger guidance.

FIELD NOTES / 06 / BIRD

Bald eagle

READ TOGETHER

Grown-up bald eagles have white heads.

COLOR AND NOTICE

Point to the wing. Pick a color for its feathers.

Grown-ups: scan ↗

GOOD SCOUTS GIVE WILDLIFE SPACE.
Stay at least 100 yards from bears, wolves and cougars; 25 yards from other wildlife.
Never approach or feed wildlife. Watch with a grown-up and follow ranger guidance.

YOUR ADVENTURE, REMEMBERED

Look what you discovered.

WILDLIFE SCOUT

JUNIOR WILDLIFE SCOUT

This adventure belongs to

_____

who colored six animals
and learned to give wildlife space.

MY FAVORITE ANIMAL WAS

_____

_____ _____

DATE SCOUT SIGNATURE

Their next discovery is out there.

Explore the Wildlife Scouts field guide together. Scan with a grown-up to keep the adventure going.

An independent family activity. Not affiliated with the National Park Service.

Wildlife facts: nps.gov/yell/learn/nature • Safety: nps.gov/yell/planyourvisit/safety.htm